

162 Collins Street, Melbourne VIC 3000

Small - Large Flexible Offices Spaces

Located in the iconic Georges Building at the stunning 'Paris end' of Collins Street, the second Melbourne location for Hub Australia, Hub Collins Street takes coworking to the next level, offering premium workspaces in beautiful surroundings.

Built-in 1880, The Georges Building has a long history as one of Melbourne's finest places to shop and remains surrounded by high-end retail. Taking on a new lease of life as a coworking community, the building is located within walking distance of Flinders Street station and close to the future Town Hall Station.
