NORTH SHORE SHOWROOM

This showroom must go! The owner is living in the Eastern Suburbs now and needs the capital for a new project. This has to be one of the nicest small showrooms on the North Shore currently on the market.

This terrific retail space is the perfect place for you to showcase your business and take advantage of the thousands of people that walk and drive past this property every single day. With ample parking along the street, and 1 secure place in the building this place might just be the one you have been looking for!
