

1/175 Macquarie Street, Sydney NSW 2000

Great heritage office building

187 Macquarie Street is located on the western side of Hunter St situated on the corner of Macquarie and Hunter Streets. The building was built in 1909 but was completely refurbished in 1985. The building finishes include a suspended acoustic tile ceiling and recessed fluorescent lighting. The air-conditioning for the building is floor by floor and the building operates with a key card access system.

The premises is situated on level 1, which is fitted out with fixed furniture and partitions and is ready to occupy.

Offices
FOR LEASE

103sqm

Sam Bechara

0411 156 946

Sam.Bechara@ap.jll.com