Cafe Caprice Bargara

If great coffee is your passion and you love dealing with people, you'll love this business. Located in the beautiful coastal town of Bargara Queensland, Café Caprice is 'the' coffee house of choice for discerning coffee lovers in the area. The café itself presents beautifully and boasts a prime position in Bargara's largest and busiest shopping centre, which takes full advantage of Woolworths walk through traffic 7 days a week.

The business has built an enthusiastic client base with a combination of attention to detail, great coffee and excellent customer service, making it one of the busiest coffee shops within the general area.

Currently operated under management but is ideally suited to family operation
