Hotel Circa 1847 - Evandale

Knight Frank is privileged to offer this freehold and business offering. The township of Evandale hosts events such as the weekly Sunday market, annual Glover art awards and penny-farthing championships.

This landmark hotel is situated on a prominent corner site in the main street. The 'Clarendon Arms Hotel' features history and character, and presents an opportunity to renovate to provide a facility which will attract the crowds that flock to Evandale.

The offering includes freehold property as well as liquor and gaming licences and the current business goodwill.
