

65 Windsor Road, Red Hill QLD 4059

History Meets Opportunity

This property is ripe for development or refurbishment.

Improvements consists of a two bedroom residence constructed circa 1938. The residence has recently been utilized for storage purposes and is in a poor to fair condition.

There is a garage and additional rooms on the lower level. On the plus side the property is situated on a high position with commanding views towards Kelvin Grove and with glimpses of the City area.

Owners are relocating interstate and are keen to negotiate a sale on this property.
