Perhaps surprisingly for the area, this business does not solely rely on holiday makers and seasonal trade, having already established a solid loyal local clientele through very little advertising other than word of mouth.

Careful planning has gone into providing patrons with a menu of food and an array of beverages that are both varied and rare. In addition to its authentic German/Swedish food menu Fika Weinstüble offers a wide range of German Schnapps', German and European beers (both on-tap and bottled) as
