Moogully Pty Ltd has become a household name in Darwin NT after trading in excess of 46 years. We also trade as TRADIES WORKWEAR HOUSE & SOMETHINGFISHYCLOTHING.

Moogully is a factory that screen prints garments, produces digital transfers and prints full colour all over sublimation fishing shirts to both retail and custom printing to small business, schools, retailers, Government and individuals and has been in operation since 1974

Tradies Workwear House came from the expansion of our premises onto a main industrial road in Winnellie and we have a shop front that promotes the sale of our workwear items, a huge range of clothing and boots and is a portal for people wanting their own custom designs onto items that they purchase from us.

For some years we have marketed our fishing shirts under the name SOMETHINGFISHYCLOTHING and if you go to our website you will get the idea. Our business is well known in Darwin and districts as producer of quality and innovative merchandise.

The factory is set up and travelling very well with good equipment in place (full list can be provided). We have a long history which we are proud to show you. We are very good at what we do and I am very happy to show you through the factory and explain our production
