Restaurant Bar

Building Area: 400m2 (approx)

Situated on a prime corner this approved restaurant/bar is close to the massive re-development of the Hunter Street Mall area. On the corner of Bolton and Hunter Streets this old National Australia bank is full of ambience with grand architecture as it was designed by the architect who built the original Commonwealth Bank in Martin Place Sydney. The features of this restaurant include:

- Huge timber bar
- Private dining areas
- Restaurant liquor licence
- Huge Gatsby style murals

The ambience within this building has to be seen to be believed, the sense of space whilst standing below the high ornate ceilings has to be felt, this one of finest buildings of style and aq
