The Great Ocean Road leads to Apollo Bay and there is a steady stream of travellers every day of the year. And they come here on what's to offer them. They love the beautiful village of Apollo Bay, which is located at the foothills of the Otways.

Anglers have plenty on offer too, with a deep-sea fishing adventure at the top of the list. Backpackers walk through the nearby rainforest and wander past plunging waterfalls and lush fern gullies. They can enjoy an exhilarating ride through the ranges on a mountain bike or take a treetop walk along the Otway Fly and get a bird's eye view of the spectacular Otway Ranges. And much, much more. You also will fall in love with Apollo Bay, and love where you work and love w
