FOR SALE

This manufacturing business is well established and continually growing in sales due to a high quality product and great service.

80% of orders are standard weekly orders that are automatically processed via computer using a Reckon accounting system, and 20% orders are via telephone and then put in the system. Some full time management will greatly improve the financial rewards of this solid business.

There are currently 4 full time bakers and 2 packers, and staff start at 2 pm and finish approx 11pm. Working only
