

137 High Street, Campbell Town TAS 7210

Red Bridge Cafe - Campbell Town - Substantial Stone Building

Here is that very rare opportunity to acquire a significant piece of Tasmania's early history.

This special property began its life in the early 1800s as the Campbell Town Brewery. With an eclectic mixed history, the building has served as a boxing gym, a school, as a military drill hall during the First World War, a Masonic lodge in the 1920's, a girl guides hall, and also as an antiques shop for many years until recently, following major building renovations, as a successful cafe and providore.

Vehicular access and parking areas for up to 25 vehicles, General liquor license and Food Licenses are all in place.
