The secret's (almost) out. If you've been waiting for an opportunity that involves living and working by the sea, consistent weekend and holiday-time bonus profits and being part of a community that's all about health, wealth and a wonderful lifestyle - then this is for you.

An established and renowned Peninsula commercial holding is available for purchase for the right buyer. If you're ready to invest in a people to people establishment that delivers substantial income and a connection to the community, you will not be disappointed in this fabulously secure financial holding.

It's time to stop dreaming about a sea change and fiscal freedom. Your real-time success already exists with this proven strong-yield Peninsula business.

The groundwork has been done and asking price represents real value for money.
