Established Profitable Business and Property in a Prime Location ? A Great Combi

A great chance to purchase a well established, profitable business along with the freehold property that provides the high profile location. Successfully operating as RC Caravans & Trailers (formally Ron Carter Caravans) the business has been run by the current owners from 1999 to 2006 and then from 2009 onwards. The business has grown to include the sale of new and used caravans, trailers and caravanning accessories along with after sale service of both caravans and trailers. The location allows for excellent display of available stock for sale. Close to Launceston Airport with frontage onto both Richard Street and Evandale Main Road the location is exposed to masses of passing traffic and is very easily accessed by potential customers. It allows plenty of room for display and operation of the business without being comp
