

144 Wickham Street, Fortitude Valley QLD 4006

A unique piece of Brisbane's history

Once the site of the notorious Bubbles Bath-House illegal casino and 'massage parlour' at the centre of the Fitzgerald Inquiry, 144 Wickham Street is now home to Les Bubbles, a steakhouse and bar.

A rogues gallery of corruption and misconduct is highlighted throughout the restaurant / bar and is an essential stop for connoisseurs of Brisbane's past.

This is a unique offering of history that has been converted into a trendy upmarket restaurant and bar with an ambience like no other.
