Across Australia there are not many independent Art and Craft Shops that are better known than Albany's Boolah Art and Craft Supplies. Locals are very familiar with this treasure of the South Coast. Tourists are amazed and delighted to find a business that is truly unique and staffed by people with a passion for the products they sell.

The next year will bring some challenges to Boolah that will require a change of emphasis in the stock lines carried. These challenges come because of the expected arrival to town of a major, low service importer. In light of these changes, the current owners have decided to sell the business with a much lower goodwill component than the trading figures can justify. The buyer will
