FOR SALE

This is a truly fabulous business that has just grown and grown over the years and there is ample prospect of growing it much, much further.

Owner of more than 15 years is no longer able to work in the business because of illness - currently being run by a family member.

The business is run in a fabulous and very large building, an old Cinema in the heart of the best suburbs of Perth in Western Australia - We have the whole cinema!! And when our current time is up, we are sure the lease can be easily renewed. The rent is great and they seem to just want the building taken care of. We have been in the building for eight years, have loved every minute of it and the building owners seem to want us there just as much. Of course, we are
