Unique Retail Store In Robina Town Centre - Internet Site Included

Phone enquiries - please quote property ID 13310

Sales have been consistent and even increasing during a time considered to be tough for retailers. As the economy improves - as it must - sales should show an increasing rate of improvement.

There is potential to create further sales in other markets such as the film industry, conventions, schools, golf clubs etc. We do receive orders from these sources at present but they could be expanded if we made an effort into fostering relations.

I am happy to stay on with the purchaser for a few weeks if they wish. The business is relatively simple and I would make sure that the purchaser understood it before 'abandoning' them. I will also be available
