This premium business boasts a large portfolio of highly recognised Australian and international celebrity clients. Offering a diverse range of social management services, this business prides itself on excellent customer service and fast turn around times. This agency provides a broad spectrum of social management services including talent booking for marketing campaigns, launching bespoke influencer events as well as content creation for all social media and social management services.

In the past 12 months, the business has been able to diversify its income stream through the introduction of a new events segment as well as the launch of three new brands.

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to acquire a well-known, established and profitable business with extensive policies and procedures and exclusive contracts in place. It comes with a large client base and outstanding opportunities to grow and continually expand in the social management arena.
