'Fuseliers' Cottage

This charming cottage built Circa 1840 for Angus McLeod, the Bandmaster of the Royal Scottish Fuseliers. Beautifully built from a blend of sandstone and blue stone, this timeless Georgian classic impresses from every angle.

Immaculately presented, with all period detailing intact, accommodation presently comprises central passageway, four ground floor rooms, kitchen bathroom and powder room, whilst upstairs there are a further two dormer rooms.

This is a truly rare chance to secure blue chip Battery Point real estate with timeless Georgian looks and a zoni
