Phone enquiries - please quote property ID 24843.

Mackerel Beach is a stunning hamlet opposite Palm Beach (where they film "Home & Away") in Sydney.

Backing on to Ku ring gai National Park and nestled in the corner of the suburb is the sloping building block that would suit a pole house. Mackerel Beach is water access only with regular ferry services through out the day. From the water to the block is flat and easy access.

Mackerel Beach has a spectacular safe swimming beach is a great area to bring up a family. This block must be one of the cheapest blocks in Sydney with electricity and landline in the street and ready to connect to the block. This is the perfect block to work from home and enjoys a beautiful
