Buds in Bloom in Traralgon is one of those businesses that has withstood the test of time ? established for over 30 years and remaining profitable even during Covid Times. The business has offered a consistent turnover of around $400,000 pa with much scope remaining for growth.

We enjoy a strong and favourable reputation and solid customer base, holding a large market share in this regional Victorian town.

Conveniently located on a busy main street of Traralgon, and having traded from the same location for around 3 decades, the current owners hold a 5x5x5 lease which may be transferred to the new owners. T
