

, Heidelberg VIC 3084

Long-running, Hassle-free Joinery Business

Phone enquiries - please quote property ID 27572.

Established in 1978, this business is a joinery business servicing both residential and commercial customers and is a well-known brand within the industry, now for sale. The business is currently running with staff in place, including a general manager responsible for most business operations, so the transition to a new owner would be smooth. The new owner would likely be an existing cabinet maker, someone in construction, or someone with a passion for running a business in this industry ? basic construction knowledge is a must.

The business was experiencing solid profit of up to 10% pre-COVID, and now with business returning to normal, it's a great time to buy! This is a solid investment, with growth potential ? choose to run more of the operations yourself as an owner/manager to achieve greater profit and pay for yourself, or even expand into flat-pack or stone.

Included in the sale:

- All plant equipment
- IP, including current website
- Rented location in Northern Suburbs ? 2500m2 warehouse, with an existing lease in place
- 24-30 existing staff
- Existing processes in place

The business processes are all fully established and automated from start to finish, meaning that this will be a smooth and hassle-free business to run. The current owner will also

Industrial/manufacturing

FOR SALE

Contact Agent

2500sqm