Retiring Seller - Owner Must Sell!

Work an hour a day* for $50,000+pa*

It doesn't get more central than Chevron Island. Connected by two bridges to Southport and Surfers Paradise, both within walking distances, this opportunity is primed for growth. Already a thriving area with small businesses, caf?, restaurants, bars and boutiques lining the main street, you won't find a better opportunity.

My Seller is retiring and has already purchased elsewhere, and so is exceptionally motivated to sell. I am under instructions to present offers. Make your offer today!

* Manager's unit is over 30%* larger than other units in the complex and includes basement storage room and 1 car
