Spitfire Aluminium Boat Trailers are recognised as the leader in the industry for quality, strength and design? and at a competitive price. All Spitfire trailers are certified 'at arm's length' by Australian Engineers. Spitfire Boat trailers are exported globally to 10 countries, and a Sole Agent Distribution opportunity exists for Spitfire Boat Trailers for the Northern Territory.

Business Cost:

There is no cost for the business.

Cost for this business is only the cost of the stock with no franchise fees or ongoing charges.

The cost of stock and to set up the business would be approximately $300,000-00.

Training would be undertaken by Head Office.

This presents a virtually no risk situation to an incoming Distributor to obtain a business for free, that will give monthly profit while building a business with a saleable value.

About the business:

- The major market for boat trailers is not selling to new boat buyers, as one might expect.
- The reality is that boats can last 30 to 50 years, but a majority of galvanised steel boat trailers need to be replaced due to rust or fatigue and often replaced several times d
