HISTORY

Following the discovery of gold at Hollerton and the news of Muntadgin set to become a vital junction for the transcontinental railway line, the State Brewery anticipated a population boom in Muntadgin and so employed leading Perth architect and builder Mr Harold Doust to construct the two storied hotel in the centre of the town.

The Muntadgin Hotel was completed in 1931.

TODAY

Purchased most recently by Con and Dianne Di Carlo in 1999, The Munty Pub has become a well-loved social setting for both locals and seasonal workers. The Countryman awarded the Munty Pub as one of ?The
