Gift and Homewares Boutique in the heart of the Avon Valley

Phone enquiries - please quote property ID 32469.

Everlastings on Fitzgerald is a well-established 'Bricks and Mortar' home and giftwares boutique located in the middle of the main street in the town of Northam, which is considered the Heart of the Avon Valley.

It is the longest standing store of its kind in the region. We pride ourselves on our carefully curated selection of clothing and accessories, unique and distinctive gifts and quality homewares. Along with our personalised and friendly service.

We are the go-to store for our locals and have many long term customers from the greater wheatbelt area as well.

This business is easy to run and requires no previous experience in retail. Just a keen eye for quality and beauty. It would suit an astute buyer who appreciates the value of purchasing an established bu
