

, Alstonville NSW 2477

Established Bakery in Alstonville Serving Delicious Goods

Phone enquiries - please quote property ID 32996.

This well-established bakery business has been serving delicious baked goods, coffee, and a popular salad bar for an extensive period of time. As the proud owners for 3.5 years, it has been a profitable venture for us, but now it's time to pass on our legacy to someone else.

Located along a main road in the bustling town of Alstonville, the business benefits from excellent traffic flow and a strong, loyal customer base. With a modern and clean brick building, featuring large bifold doors and windows, the premises offer a spacious and inviting atmosphere for patrons to enjoy their treats.

The sale includes a large commercial oven, a delivery van, and a simple Simon pie machine. The newly renovated shop boasts new cabinetry, pendant lights, and shelving, making it a turnkey operation for the next owner to take over seamlessly.

This business would suit anyone with a passion for baking, as no formal skills or qualifications are required. The current owners have minimal involvement in the day-to-day operations, making it a great opportunity for someone looking to enter the food industry or expand their current business portfolio.

The bakery has a well-established customer base, spanning not only Alstonville but also neighboring towns such as Goonellabah, Lismore, and Ballina, with an online presence, includ

Food/hospitality

FOR SALE

Contact Agent

105sqm