

, Low Head TAS 7253

Picturesque Northern Tasmania Tourist Park

Situated at the mouth of the Tamar River and overlooking Bass Strait, Low Head Tourist Park is central to many of the leading tourism venues within the Tamar Valley.

Within close proximity are iconic attractions including the Low Head Lighthouse (Built Circa 1888); Australia's oldest continuously operational Pilot Station, and the Pilot Station Maritime Museum.

The properties key features include:

- 2.0 hectares (approx) scenic land holding
- Strong seasonal occupancy
- 18 self-contained cab

Accommodation/tourism

FOR SALE

David Webster

0419 516 629

david.webster@au.knightfrank.com