

40 Gunn Parade, Low Head TAS 7253

Northern Tasmania - At the Edge of Bass Strait

Situated at Low Head on the mouth of the Tamar River, this property contains 7 hectares (approx.) of near beach-front land once used as a caravan and cabin park.

The property has "through-dune" access to East Beach which is one of the most popular beaches on Tassie's North Coast.

Famous for its historic sites (Low Head Lighthouse; Low Head Pilot Station; Historic George Town) this area, at the entrance to the Tamar Valley, is one of Tasmania's foremost tourist "must visit" locations.
